Lakes:

John Horan gave lakes committee report. He stated that;

- we have a low number of bluegill and need to get rid of predators.
- all Grass and Brown Carp that are caught should be kept
- All crappie should be kept as well as bass under 12".
- desire to have the state increase our number of bass caught under our slot limit rule.
- Once enough fish are harvested, begin a fish feeding program combined with an increase to the fish cover (structures) in the lakes. They will come to the board with their final recommendations in the near future.

Archery: Andy Spenlau reported that there was an archery work party to set up the 3D targets, it was well attended. Watch out for a broken board on the second bridge. It will be fixed soon!

Trap: All good

Camping: All good

Federation Report: The Federation Fair is August 7th. CCGF will have two teams shooting.

CMP: No report

NRA: Chris Wald said to watch for a homemade firearms ban and an assault weapon ban. He reminded everyone to try and volunteer for a youth sporting group.

Tom Mann thanked all that helped with the family meeting dinner.

Unfinished Business: none

New Business:

Member Ryan Hill and his family enjoying a beautiful Memorial Day 2022 at the club.

Shout out to Jeff Davidson and Doug Enlow for cutting fire-wood at the family fire pit.

Also, wood still needs splitting perhaps this would be a good time to get a work party together. If anyone is interested talk to Tom Pyke or any Board Member to get approval.
